

Vera I. Chatzigeorgiou

vera.chatzigeorgiou@gmail.com

PROFILE

Vera Chatzigeorgiou is a PhD Candidate at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens since March 2022. She holds an LL.M in Public International Law (with distinction, 2020) and an LL.B (2018) from the same University. Her doctoral research focuses on the application of due diligence during health emergency situations. Currently, she is working as a Junior Associate providing legal and secretariat assistance to Director General at the Natural Environment and Climate Change Agency (NECCA), a competent national authority supervised by the Hellenic Ministry of Environment and Energy. Previously, she worked for Interamerican S.A, a multinational insurance company seated in Athens, Greece. Since January 2024, she participates to the research project titled “International Economic Law and Inclusiveness in Greek Society” (P.I. Assistant Professor, Anastasios Gourgourinis).

Her areas of interest include public international law, international environmental law, international dispute settlement, international economic law.

She is native Greek, while fluent in English, French, German.